Question 1

On August 31, 2013 the Communications, Energy & Paperworkers Union merged (CEP) with Canadian Auto Workers (CAW) to form the union, Unifor. With more than 300,000 members across the country, Unifor is the largest private sector union in Canada with members working in every major sector of the Canadian economy.

Unifor Local 72M represents English and French speaking employees working as production, transmitter, and maintenance technicians, researchers, education officers, graphic artists, production and office staff at TVO and TFO. At Unifor Local 72M we stand by the philosophy that “there’s strength in numbers” which forms the basis of our advocacy. We strive to not only improve the lives of our members and their families, but also the communities in which they live.

In 200-300 words each please respond to the following:

- A. How are unions relevant to you in your life and in your community? Please provide specific examples.
- B. What does the phrase “there is strength in numbers” mean to you? Do you see this philosophy being embodied in your community, school or work environment? If so, how?
